

Diplomats rescuing Jews in Hungary and diplomats from Hungary involved in rescue

Y	Y	Per Anger	Chargé d'Affaires of the Swedish Legation 1944-45
Y		Lars Berg	Swedish Consul from August 1944
N	Y	Friedrich Born	Swiss delegate of the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) May 1944 - January 1945
N	Y	Carlos de Liz-Texeira Branquinho	Portugal's Chargé d'Affaires in 1944
Y		Carl Ivan Danielsson	Head of the Swedish mission
Y		Harald Feller	Head of the Swiss legation in 1944
Y	Y	Carlos de Almada Fonseca Sampaio Garrido	Ambassador of Portugal
		Maximillian Jaeger	Head of Swiss Mission
N		Alexander Kasser	Valdemer Langlet's private secretary
		Paul Komor	Jewish Honorary Consul General for Hungary in Shanghai in 1938-194?
Y	Y	Valdemar Langlet	Delegate of the Swedish Red Cross in Budapest 1944-45 and Cultural Attaché at the Swedish Legation
Y	Y	Carl Lutz	Swiss Vice-Consul 1944-45
		George Mantello (Mandel)	Hungarian born Jewish First Secretary of El Salvador consulate in Geneva 1942-45 ¹ .
Y	Y	Giorgio Perlasca	Italian, posed as the Spanish Consul General in winter 1944
Y	Y	Monsignor Angello Rotta	Apostolic Nuncio
Y	Y	Ángel Sanz-Briz	Spain Chargé d'Affaires
N	Y	Henryk Sławik	Polish diplomat
Y		Ján Spišiak	Slovak envoy
N	Y	Father Gennaro Verolino	Apostolic diplomat
Y	Y	Raoul Wallenberg	Swedish diplomat
N	Y	Ernst Vonrufs	Part of Swiss embassy Department of Foreign Interests
N	Y	Dr. Peter Zücher	Part of Swiss embassy Department of Foreign Interest

“Y” in column 1 indicates diplomats Yad Vashem and the Foreign Ministry included in the 2018 International Holocaust Memorial Day exhibitions and memorial the Israeli Foreign Ministry external wall. Altogether only 36 diplomats were listed.

“Y” in column 2 indicates diplomats whose name appears on memorial sign located behind Budapest's Great Synagogue,

¹ Mantello's publication of the Auschwitz Report detailing the atrocities led to massive grass roots protest and about 400 lead articles in the Swiss press, which was major contribution to Horthy stopping the Auschwitz transports from Hungary.